BPUT Anti-Ragging Policy (UGC Compliant)

1. Definition

Ragging includes any conduct by a student, whether by words spoken or written, or by an act, that has the effect of teasing, treating, or handling with rudeness any other student, indulging in rowdy or undisciplined activities, or asking a student to do something that causes shame, annoyance, or psychological harm.

2. Zero Tolerance

BPUT follows a strict zero-tolerance policy. Any incident, however minor, will be treated as a serious offense.

3. Reporting Channels

Students may report ragging through: (a) the online portal form, (b) the Anti-Ragging Helpline 1800-180-5522, (c) the Warden, HOD, or Dean directly, (d) the National Anti-Ragging Portal antiragging.in. All reports are confidential.

4. Penalties

First offense: suspension for one semester and a fine of ■25,000. Second offense: suspension for one year and entry in the character certificate. Severe offenses: expulsion and FIR under IPC Section 506 (criminal intimidation).

5. Committees

Every college has an Anti-Ragging Committee chaired by the Principal and an Anti-Ragging Squad for surprise checks. Contact details are published on notice boards and the portal.

6. Support for Victims

Victims are offered free counseling, academic support, and assistance in pursuing legal action. No academic penalty is imposed on victims for absence during the reporting period.
